Dear _____,

This letter establishes the terms and conditions for the use of your aircraft for the purpose of your flight training.

During the period of training, the following conditions must be continuously in place:

1. Your aircraft is maintained in accordance with the Canadian Aviation Regulations.
2. Your name appears on the Certificate of Registration for the aircraft.
3. You maintain on board your aircraft explicit written proof that you are insured for the purpose of receiving flight training, and that your Langley Flying School Flight Instructor is insured for the purpose of providing you with flight training.
4. All maintenance performed on your aircraft during the period of your training will be documented and recorded in your aircraft's Journey Log.
5. All required aircraft documentation will be kept current and on board the aircraft at all times, including the following:
 - a. Pilot Operating Handbook, up to date with respect to the manufacturer's requirement.
 - b. Certificate of Insurance
 - c. Equipment List including Weight and Balance
 - d. Certificate of Registration
 - e. Certificate of Airworthiness
 - f. Interception Orders
 - g. Canada Flight Supplement

During the course of your training, you will ensure that all maintenance and servicing conducted on your aircraft will be performed by a fully qualified Aircraft Maintenance Engineer during the period of your flight training, with the exception of the adding of oil or fuel, which must be supervised by your Flight Instructor.

Before and during your flight training, you will enable Langley Flying School Flight Instructors to access and fly your aircraft free of charge for the purpose of air training and/or practice, as deemed necessary by the Chief Flying Instructor.

If you are in agreement with the terms and conditions of this letter, please sign below, keep one copy of this letter for yourself, and return the other copy to me.

Best regards,

David Parry,
Chief Flying Instructor

I hereby accept and agree to the terms, conditions and principles of this letter.
